GUIDE to WILLS & ESTATES

Table of Contents (Abbreviated and Condensed)

Chapter I OVERVIEW

Provides an overview of legislation and Probate Rules in a simplified fashion as they relate to support staff's work in preparing Wills as well as the complex process of grant applications and estate administration.

Chapter II WILLS

This chapter explains the steps involved in Will preparation and execution -- from client interview and information gathering (an excellent Checklist is provided) to preparation and processing of a well-constructed Will using WESA-compliant clauses. Clauses are lawyer-edited and written in plain language to be easily understood by the most important person in the whole process, the Will-Maker. Using a quick-reference format for speedy document preparation, precedents are set out on the right-hand page and the explanation is on the left. Everything is at your fingertips. The main sub-chapters are:

- A. Procedure
- B. Letters
- C. Documents
- D. Precedent Clauses

Chapter III ESTATES

This very extensive chapter includes: the procedure for grant applications; the Notice of Proposed Application in relation to estate; the Probate Forms explained; considerations with the issue of Spousal Home, and; explanation of changes brought about by WESA and the Probate Rules. Quick-reference format (see above). The main sub-chapters are:

- A. Pre-Application
 - i. Procedure
 - ii. Letters
 - iii. Documents
- B. Application
 - i. Procedure
 - ii. Notice of Proposed Application
 - iii. Forms and Appendix
 - iv. Spousal Home
- C. Post-Application
 - i. Procedure
 - ii. Letters
 - iii. Documents

Chapter IV HELPFUL INFORMATION

Here is where you will find important reference information, such as Website Links, Checklists, Addresses, Glossary, Fee Schedules and Index and more. Easy access to updated information means improved efficiency.

"Thank you for your material. I've relied upon it for eons." Keith, BC Lawyer
